NEW APPLICATION INFORMATION SHEET – NATIONAL LICENCE TO PERFORM HIGH RISK WORK

Who should read this?

Applicants who have undergone assessment for a new high risk work (HRW) licence class and have been issued with a Notice of Satisfactory (NSA) form.

A person is eligible to obtain a national licence to perform HRW when they have demonstrated competency in the safe performance of the relevant HRW licence class and has satisfactorily met the assessment requirements prescribed by SafeWork NSW.

This information sheet will assist you in completing your Application for a national licence to perform high risk work – New application form (catalogue no. SW08310) for the issue of a HRW licence or for an additional HRW licence class to be added to your existing HRW licence.

All new HRW licence cards issued have a five year expiry date. An applicant who is applying to have new HRW licence class(es) added to their existing licence, will be issued a licence for all HRW licence classes, keeping your existing licence number and expiry date.

Please allow at least four weeks from the time you lodge your application with Australia Post to receive your HRW licence. Further information about the application process can be found on the SafeWork NSW website at www.safework.nsw.gov.au or by calling 13 10 50.

Note: Performing work for which a HRW licence is required without a current and relevant licence is a serious matter. Penalties may apply under the WHS Regulation.
