

ASSESSMENT BY A SAFEWORK NSW ACCREDITED ASSESSOR FOR A NATIONAL LICENCE TO PERFORM HIGH RISK WORK – APPLICATION

CA1 FEBRUARY 2022

This form must be completed by a person seeking to be assessed by a SafeWork NSW accredited assessor for the purposes of obtaining a national licence to perform high risk work (HRW).

An applicant must apply to a registered training organisation (RTO) for a HRW licence assessment. Before an assessment for a HRW licence can be conducted, the applicant must provide evidence that he/she has achieved the required competencies to have his/her skills and knowledge assessed against the relevant unit(s) of competency. An assessment for a HRW licence must be conducted by a SafeWork NSW accredited assessor that has been nominated by an RTO to conduct HRW licence assessments. The RTO is required to provide details of nominated assessors to SafeWork NSW. SafeWork NSW is unable to process an application for a HRW licence if the assessor has not been nominated by the RTO.

SECTION 9. APPLICANT DECLARATION

I am aware that:

- The assessment process for my application for a HRW licence issued in accordance with the WHS Regulation, is prescribed by SafeWork NSW.
- My assessment for a HRW licence can only be conducted by a SafeWork NSW accredited assessor that has been nominated by an RTO to conduct the assessment.
- SafeWork NSW is unable to process my application for a HRW licence if the assessor who conducted the assessment, a) has not been nominated by the RTO; b) does not hold accreditation in the nominated licence class; or c) does not hold currency of accreditation with SafeWork NSW.
- Any attempt to influence the assessor's decision on the outcome of the assessment is an offence under the Crimes Act 1900 (Crimes Act).
- If the accredited assessor or RTO fails to comply with the WHS Regulation, the relevant assessment instrument, standards for RTOs 2015 and/or SafeWork NSW conditions, I may have my HRW licence cancelled and/or a fine or prosecution imposed.
- In the event that I was not properly assessed and I knowingly participated in that act, I may be found to be aiding and abetting the assessor, which is an offence under section 268 of the WHS Act.
- My HRW licence may be cancelled if I was not properly assessed, even if I did not knowingly participate in the improper assessment.
- During my assessment, the assessor is required to be present at all times and the assessor must not prompt me for answers or responses in any part of the assessment process.
- I am to complete a knowledge and performance assessment and, depending on the class, a calculations assessment, in accordance with the relevant assessment instrument.
- My answers may be oral or written. If giving my answers orally, they are to be written down by the assessor on the assessment paper.
- During the knowledge assessment and calculations assessment (where applicable), I am not to have the answers provided to me. I am not permitted to refer to any material to assist me with answering any question.
- The person who trained me must not conduct the assessment of my HRW licence application without the written approval of SafeWork NSW.
- A SafeWork NSW inspector may conduct an audit to observe the assessor during my assessment to ensure compliance with WHS legislation. At any stage, SafeWork NSW may conduct an investigation into an outcome of an assessment and/or where it has been identified that an accredited assessor may not be complying with his/her accreditation conditions.
- Before signing the NSA or AS, I should check that all the details have been recorded correctly and accurately.
- If any details on the NSA or AS form are incorrect or inaccurate, I will inform the assessor immediately. If the assessor refuses to change the incorrect details, I will contact SafeWork NSW to advise.
- If I believe that the assessment was not conducted properly or I have been issued with an NSA without being assessed, I will notify SafeWork NSW as soon as possible.
- Under the WHS Regulation, SafeWork NSW may at any time request that my competency be reassessed.

APPLICANT DECLARATION

I, _____ (print name)

of, _____ (print your home address)

_____ (postcode) _____ (contact phone)

hereby declare that:

- I am at least 18 years of age and, to the best of my knowledge, I do not already hold a current HRW licence or equivalent licence class(es) to which this application applies.
- The information provided on this form and supporting my application is true and correct in every particular.
- I have read and I understand the information provided above and understand that if my assessment was not carried out correctly, my HRW licence could be cancelled.
- To the best of my knowledge, I do not have any illness or incapacity that affects my ability to do the scheduled work for the HRW licence class(es) that are the subject of this application.
- If, after obtaining my HRW licence, I develop any illness or incapacity which may affect my ability to do the scheduled work for any licence class I hold, I will cease to do the work and will advise SafeWork NSW immediately.

AFTER THE FULL ASSESSMENT

- When you are deemed competent in all areas of the assessment, you will receive a NSA that is valid for 60 days. During the 60 day period, you must go to an Australia Post Office that has a BillPay facility and lodge the original (orange and white copy) NSA, the Application for a national licence to perform high risk work – new application form (catalogue no. SW08310), pay the correct fee, and provide the original evidence of identity documents in accordance with the new application guidelines.
- If you do not lodge your application with Australia Post within 60 days from the date of assessment, SafeWork NSW will not issue you a licence.
- Provided you can produce the pink copy of the NSA, you are able to perform work in the HRW licence class for which the NSA applies, without direct supervision, for 60 days from the date of issue. Once you have lodged your application for an HRW licence, you will be able to continue to work unsupervised until you have been notified of the outcome of your application.
- If you are deemed not yet competent in any areas of the assessment, you will receive an AS that is valid for 90 days.
- If you do not agree with the assessor's decision in deeming you 'not yet competent', you may lodge a request to SafeWork NSW for a review of the assessor's decision. Any such request must be in writing and lodged within 14 days of the date of assessment.
- If you want to be reassessed for the area or areas in which you are not yet competent, you must wait two days before being reassessed. Reassessments must be completed within 90 days of the issue date of the AS.
- If you do not undertake the reassessment within 90 days, you will be required to complete a full assessment in all areas.

SECTION 10. ASSESSOR DECLARATION

On the basis of the information provided, I declare this application to be acceptable for the purpose of conducting an assessment.

Note: If this application is not acceptable, it must be returned to the applicant with a statement of reason(s) included.
